

HM The Queen and Scouting

Print these out and cut them up to play.

1937	Princess Elizabeth becomes a Guide; Princess Margaret joins as a Brownie.
1952	HM The Queen reviews the national parade of Queen's Scouts at Windsor Castle and takes the salute for the first time.
1953	Scouts assist the crowds at the Coronation of HM Queen Elizabeth II. HM The Queen accepts the Gold Wolf.
1954	HM The Queen attends a Gang Show at Golders Green Hippodrome, London.
1957	At the 1957 World Scout Jamboree, Indaba and Moot HM The Queen is received as a VIP.
1961	Baden-Powell House, South Kensington is opened by HM The Queen as a living monument to the Founder.
1972	HM The Queen and The Duke of Edinburgh attend the 40th anniversary production of Ralph Reader's Gang Show.
1975	The Duke of Kent is appointed President of The Scout Association by HM The Queen
1976	HM The Queen formally opens the new Scout Headquarters at Baden-Powell House. HM The Queen names the RNLI lifeboard The Scout in Hartlepool.
1977	Scouts across the UK celebrate HM The Queen's Silver Jubilee – and wear a commemorative badge.
1982	Royal visit to Hawkhurst Adventure Camp.
1995	HM The Queen visits Gilwell Park to reopen the White House and refurbished training centre.
2002	Queen's Scouts assist at the lying in state of the Queen Elizabeth, The Queen Mother. In June 120 Scouts take part in HM Queen Elizabeth II's Golden Jubilee celebrations in London.
2007	HM The Queen reviews the Parade of Queen's Scouts at Windsor during our Centenary year.
2008	HM The Queen meets Scouts and unveils a bronze bust at Baden-Powell House, South Kensington.
2012	Scouts celebrate HM The Queen's Diamond Jubilee.
2021	HM The Queen celebrates her Platinum Jubilee.
2022	Scouts around the world mourn the loss of HM Queen Elizabeth II.