

The final mission

Congratulations! You've shown that you have the skills needed to join The Secretive Secret Agent Agency.

Please find your final missions below.

Complete as many as you can before you next meet.

Hide these missions by putting them under your pillow, and making your own bed neatly every day.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Pick up as many pieces of rubbish as possible, without being noticed. Check they don't contain any secret messages before you recycle them or put them in the bin.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Find potential new recruits for the secretive secret agent agency by taking someone else on an excursion in espionage – how about a brother or sister, or someone who's on their own at lunchtime?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Set the table at dinner time, without being detected.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Try some foods that will help you stay fit, healthy, and ready for missions. How about carrots which help you see in the dark (because they're full of vitamin A), yoghurt (or a dairy free alternative) which helps your bones stay strong (because it's full of calcium and vitamin D), spinach or other dark green leafy vegetables which help make the red blood cells you need (because they're full of iron), or beans which help your muscles grow (because they're full of protein)?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Remember to use the words 'please' and 'thank you', so that no one mistakes you for an enemy agent.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Sort through your clothes, and ask an adult to help you give away any that don't fit, so that other potential agents have the outfits they need.	<input type="checkbox"/>
Write a letter to someone who might be lonely, or who lives far away. Practice writing in code, tell them what their secret name would be, or send them their own excursion in espionage.	<input type="checkbox"/>
