

The World Scout emblem

The two five-point stars

One stands for knowledge, and the other for truth - all ten points combined represent the ten points of the original Scout Law

Duty to God

The encircling rope

This symbolises the unity and family of the World Scout Movement

Service to others

Obedience to the Scout Law

The bond

This represents the family of Scouting

The reef knot

This symbolises the strength and unity of Scouts across the world