

Situation cards

An older person has fallen over outside your meeting place. They think they've broken their ankle.	There's a fire in your meeting place's kitchen and it's getting very smoky.
When you get to your meeting place, you see a broken window. Some things are missing.	A car has crashed outside your house and the driver has a cut on their head.
Someone's fallen off their bicycle near your meeting place and they've banged their head.	A visitor to your meeting suddenly feels unwell – they've got pain in their chest.
Someone rushes into your meeting place and say there's a burglar in their house next door.	Your friend's fallen off the swing at the park and they think they've broken their arm.
A pan catches fire at your house.	You can see a lot of smoke coming out of your next door neighbour's house but no one is there.
Someone's in a small boat out at sea but they've dropped their oars and need help.	Your friend's forgotten their asthma pump and they're struggling to breathe.
Your next door neighbour's fallen off a ladder and they can't get up.	Someone's fallen down a hole in the park and they can't get out because they've hurt their ankle.
Someone's been knocked down by a car outside your school.	Some people are having a big fight outside the supermarket.
