

Conversation guide: Changing role or team

Similar to the Welcome Conversation, the purpose of this conversation is to help volunteers understand their tasks and responsibilities, how the team volunteer together and where to find support.

In this conversation you should talk about:

- What they already know about Scouts and their new team.

---
- Any access needs they might need support with.

---
- What their interests are.

---
- What tasks they'd like to do.

---
- What their availability is.

---
- What joining journey steps they need to complete.

---
- Any other questions they might have.

---