Social media statements

- Social media has a big role in my life.

- People are more honest on social media than offline.

- People can be less kind on social media than offline

- I always think about other people's feelings when I post on social media.

- Communicating on social media can help people deal with their feelings.

- Social media is a positive communication tool.

- Online bullying is a big problem.

What do you think motivates people to act in a kind way on social media?