

STEM Video Competition General Terms and Conditions

In these terms and conditions “we”, “us” and “our” means The Scout Association, Gilwell Park, Chingford, London E4 7QW (Promoter).

1. This Promotion is open to Beaver, Cub, Scout and Explorer Sections which are members of the Promoter ("Group"), excluding employees of the Promoter and their immediate families, their agents or anyone professionally associated with this Promotion. All participants in each Group must have the consent of their parent or guardian to take part in this competition.
2. All Groups which enter this competition must have a bank account registered in their name with a UK based bank.
3. The competition is open from 9am on Monday 18th November 2019 until midnight on Friday 21st February 2020 ("Promotion Period").
4. There will be 3 winners selected at the end of the Promotion Period, who will be selected from all entries received during the Promotion Period by a panel of judges appointed by the Promoter.
5. To submit an entry, a Group should make a video of between 3- 5 minutes in length to raise awareness about a topic that is likely to affect people in the future. Examples could include climate change issues (such as extreme weather, air pollution or rising sea levels) or positive developments in science and technology (such as green energy, electric cars or smart homes). Groups will research and describe in the video exactly how their chosen topic will impact on society.
6. The prize for the 1st placed winner will be £600 cash. The prize for the 2nd placed winner will be £400 cash. The prize for the 3rd placed winner will be £200 cash. All of the prizes have been donated by Nominet UK and will be paid to the winning Groups within 60 days after the winners have been announced.
7. The winners of the Promotion will be the 3 entries that the judges determine have made a video that best answers the description set out above and which are well researched, creative, inclusive, original and topical.
8. All of the prizes must be spent on purchasing new (not second hand) computing and digital technology equipment and peripherals solely for the use of the Group.
9. Winning Groups will, if they wish, have access to Nominet staff who can provide advice and guidance on the most appropriate equipment for the Group to purchase.
10. Only one entry per Group is allowed. Winners can only win one prize.
11. No bulk, third party, automated or organised group entries will be accepted. Incomplete or corrupt entries or entries that are not in accordance with entry instructions will not be accepted.
12. The Promoter is not liable for any Group not being able to enter the Promotion for any reason, including and without limitation system failure, error, The Scout Association website being down, hacks on the system or personal computer issues.
13. The winners will be notified within 14 days of the date of the decision by email or telephone.
14. In the event that a claim for a prize is not received by the Promoter from a winner within 10 days of such notification, the Promoter reserves the right to withdraw the prize award from the original winner and award the prize to the next winner or a reserve selected at the same time as the original winner.

15. No responsibility can be taken for entries which are lost, delayed, corrupted, damaged, misdirected or incomplete or cannot be delivered for any technical, delivery or other reason.
16. The Promoter's decision is final. No correspondence will be entered into.
17. The prizes are non-transferable and will only be awarded to the winner as specified on the entry form.
18. The Promoter reserves the right to verify the identity of any Group or a winner before making the prize award and to check that the prize has been spent on purchasing new (not second hand) computing and digital technology equipment and peripherals solely for the use of the Group .
19. You can obtain details of the winner's names and countries by sending a SAE to Kathy O'Brien, The Scout Association, Gilwell Park, London, E4 7QW during the period of 3 months following the closing date, stating "STEM Video Competition".
20. By taking part in the Promotion all entrants will be deemed to have accepted and be bound by these terms and conditions (which may be amended or varied at any time by us if circumstances make this unavoidable).
21. Winners agree that the Promoter, Nominet UK and each of their subsidiaries, affiliates, related companies and employees, and any other sponsors, advertisers and promotional agencies shall have no liability (except for liability for death or personal injury arising from negligence or breach of contract), in connection with the acceptance or use of any of the prizes awarded or for the equipment that is purchased using the prizes.
22. The Promotion and these Terms and Conditions are governed by English law and each entrant hereby irrecoverably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
