

The Scout emblem

Discover the meaning behind the World Membership Award.

Duty to our world, Dharma, Allah or God

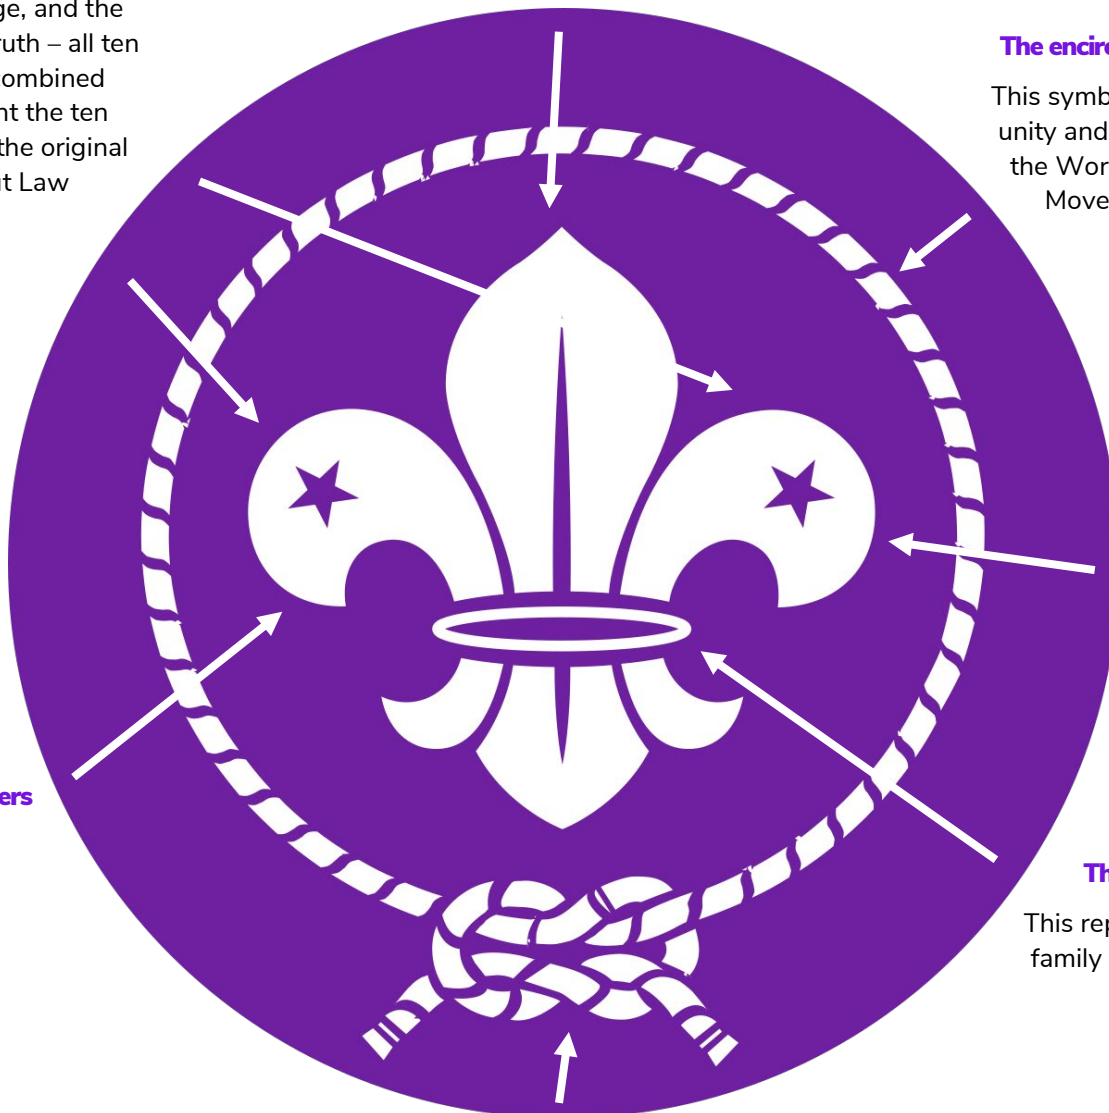

This depends on the Promise you have chosen to make

The two five-point stars

One stands for knowledge, and the other for truth – all ten points combined represent the ten points of the original Scout Law

The encircling rope

This symbolises the unity and family of the World Scout Movement

Obedience to the Scout Law

The bond

This represents the family of Scouting

The reef knot

This symbolises the strength and unity of Scouts across the world

Service to others