

An alien's guide to:

A friendly alien has landed on Earth. They've never seen your animal before and want to take one home to look after. It's your job to make them a guide so they know exactly how to keep them safe, happy and healthy!

What does it look like?

What should their home be like?

They like to live:

By themselves ☐

With other animals ☐

What do they eat? How often do they eat?

Where do they like to rest or sleep?

What toys or equipment do they need?

What's a fun fact about them?

What do they do when they are happy? What could be a sign they're not happy?
